Mr. E. P. Lovejoy, a large dealer in general merchandise, and editor of the Wabaska Mangler, at Wabaska, Nevada says: "I have tried St. Patrick's Pills and can truthfully say they are the best I have ever taken or known used." As a pleasant physic or for disorders of the liver they will always give perfect satisfaction. For sale by G. C. Thaxter.

Change is one of the irresistible laws of nature, and fortunately the change is almost invariably for the better. As an instance of this, St. Patrick's Pills are fast taking the place of the old harsh and violent cathartics, because they are milder and produce a pleasant effect, besides they are much more beneficial in removing morbid matter from the system and prevent ague and other malarious diseases. As a cathartic and liver pill they are almost perfect. For sale by Geo. C. Thaxter.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays the pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Twenty five cents a bottle.

Cough! and Cough!! and Cough!!!

What in the world is the reason you will cough and keep coughing and still keep trying inferior medicines when BEGG'S CHERRY COUGH SYRUP will positively relieve your cough at once? This is no advertising scheme, but an actual fact, and we guarantee it. W. H. Chedie, Druggist.

AT THE TRACK.

Splendid Races and a Good Attendance.

Although it was a little chilly yesterday there was a large attendance at the race course.

The first race on the programme was the unfinished trot in the three minute class, between Gibber, Snowslide, Julian G. and Ordway.

On the third trial they got away very close together, but at the turn Julian G., who had fourth place, took the lead, and "What's the matter with Julian?" came from the crowd. He was soon overhauled and passed by Gibber. Julian crept up again, but broke and lost. The four came down the stretch in good shape, Gibber slightly in the lead, and as they passed under the wire, Gibber half a length ahead, the crowd cheered and the ladies clapped their hands. Time 2:47 1/2, Ordway second.

THE DASH.

This was the postponed one-fourth of a mile dash of the day before, between Rondo, Mollie, Hawthorne and Jno. Moore.

Rondo was the favorite, and when they got away after several false starts, it was apparent that he would win. The rider of John Moore, who was announced as being seven pounds over weight, rode his horse on the outer edge of the track, so close to the rail that people expected to see him go over any second. Rondo came under the wire like the wind, making the splendid time of 22 2/5 official time, though several watches made it in 22.

THE TROTTING RACE.

Five entries were made for this race, but only three appeared on the course—Our Jack, Dan Mace and S. T. Swift. After three false starts Dan Mace took the lead and was closely followed by Our Jack. At the half mile post Our Jack gained the lead and maintained it to the wire. Time 3:08 1/2.

The start in the second heat was like the first. After going about two hundred yards Our Jack almost stopped, and those who had bought pools on him looked sad. He finally pulled himself together and closed up the gap which had formed, passing Mace and Swift at the half mile. The trot down the home stretch was close between Mace and Our Jack, but Jack managed to win easily in 3:09.

Wm. Chamberlain then announced from the Judge's stand that there would be a stock parade at 10 o'clock this morning, and that the Ladies' Tournament would immediately follow the stock parade.

THE DASH.

Four entries were made in this race—Painkiller, Dave Douglas, Installation and Johnny Gray. Painkiller was the favorite in the pools, and bets of two to one were freely offered. Excitement ran rampant, and the pool sellers made big deals. After two false starts the four struck out well together with Jno. Gray in the lead, which was soon captured by Painkiller, who stayed with it.

The race down the home stretch was the most exciting of the day, the other horses pressing Painkiller very closely. A short distance from the wire Johnny Gray made an effort to win, but Painkiller passed under the line well in the lead in 1:17 1/2.

This race was followed by another dash, eleven-sixteenths of a mile, in which Johnny Allen, Dewdrop and Lookout were entered, Allen being the favorite. The race was close the entire distance but Allen hugged the rail closely and passed under the wire with Lookout and Dewdrop at his heels.

TODAY'S PROGRAMME.

Stock parade at 10 A. M. Ladies' Tournament immediately following the stock parade. In the tournament the Misses Winters will ride, and there will be a dash of one mile between the ladies participating in the free-for-all tournament.

Pacing race, 3 in 5; J. P. Sweeney enters Sam Lewis, D. Circe enters Prince and S. C. Tryan enters Costello.

Dash of five-eighths of a mile, $200 added. Haskell and Florence by Theo. Winters, Mohawk by D. Dennison.

Trotting race, best 3 in 5 for $400. Rabe by D. Dennison, John Hayward by L. Levy, Victor by Daugherty.
